Recommendation 1:
Customers in lower loyalty tiers show higher churn and should receive targeted rewards.

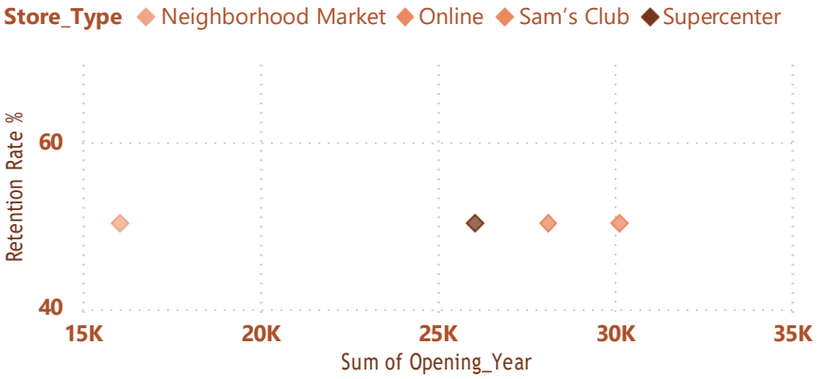

Recommendation 2:
Promotion-based purchases increase average transaction value, indicating promotions improve engagement.

Recommendation 3:
Low redemption rates suggest customers may need simplified reward redemption options.

RECOMMENDATION 1:
Customers in lower loyalty tiers show higher churn risk and should be targeted with personalized rewards and retention campaigns.

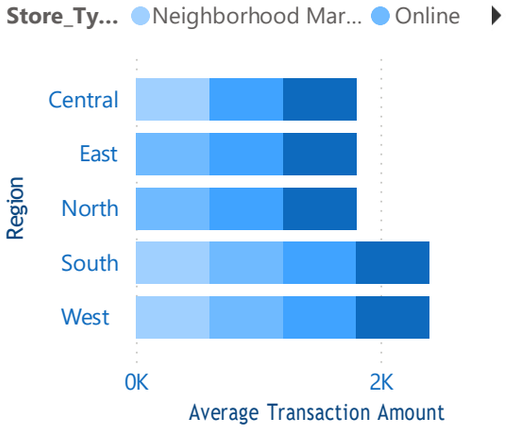

RECOMMENDATION 2:
Promotion-based purchases generate stronger customer engagement, indicating that targeted promotional strategies can improve sales performance.

RECOMMENDATION 3:
Lower point redemption compared to points earned suggests that Walmart should simplify reward redemption and provide more attractive loyalty benefits.
